

CONVERGENCE

Stephen Melanson – Vice President of Accounting & Controls

Melanson began working with Convergence Investments in August of 2007 as the controller. He has over 20 years' experience in accounting and business management, ranging from the medical industry to commercial and residential real estate investment. Melanson monitors and controls all aspects of accounting and reporting systems, and is responsible for monitoring multiple partnerships and affiliations in a wide range of real estate investment. He is an integral part of the leadership team, and provides financial reporting, forecasting, and financial strategy to enhance overall portfolio performance. Melanson has served as AP Clerk, Senior Accountant, and Consultant to a rural-regional hospital, overseeing the implementation of the facility's new accounting systems. He has also served as Controller at a publicly owned outpatient surgical facility and a local commercial/residential construction firm. Melanson uses his extensive knowledge in accounting to utilize best use outcomes and provides real estate companies with long term financial solutions. Melanson has a B.S. from the University of South Carolina.
